DISPOSITION OF SEIZED PROPERTY — NOTICE — VALUE

S.F. 2132

AN ACT relating to notices regarding the disposition of seized property and providing an effective date.

Be It Enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Iowa:

Section 1. Section 809.5, subsection 1, Code Supplement 2007, is amended to read as follows:

1. Seized property which is no longer required as evidence or for use in an investigation shall be returned to the owner, ~~provided that the person's possession of the property is not prohibited by law and there is no forfeiture claim filed on behalf of the state if the property is no longer required as evidence or the property has been photographed and the photograph will be used as evidence in lieu of the property, if the property is no longer required for use in an investigation, if the owner's possession is not prohibited by law, and if a forfeiture claim has not been filed on behalf of the state.~~

a. ~~The~~ If the aggregate fair market value of the property is greater than five hundred dollars, the seizing agency shall ~~send~~ serve notice by personal service or by sending the notice by restricted certified mail, return receipt requested, to the last known address of any person having an ownership or possessory right in the property stating that the property must be claimed within thirty days from the date of receipt of the notice. Refusal of restricted certified mail, return receipt requested, shall be construed as receipt of the notice. Such notice shall state that if no written claim for the property is filed with the seizing agency within thirty days from the date of receipt of the notice, the property shall be deemed abandoned and disposed of accordingly.

b. If the aggregate fair market value of the property is equal to or less than five hundred dollars, the seizing agency shall serve notice by personal service or by sending the notice by regular mail to the last known address of any person having an ownership or possessory right in the property.

c. A person having an ownership or possessory right in the property must file a written claim for the property with the seizing agency within thirty days from the date of receipt of the notice and must take possession of the property within thirty days of the expiration of the period of time for filing a written claim. If no written claim is filed within thirty days from the date of receipt of the notice or if a written claim is filed but the claimant does not take possession of the property within thirty days of the expiration of the period of time for filing the written claim, the property shall be deemed abandoned and shall be disposed of accordingly.

d. The notice served or sent pursuant to this subsection shall inform the recipient of the filing and possession requirements of paragraph "c".

~~b. e.~~ The seizing agency shall not release the property to any party until the expiration of the date for filing claims. In the event that there is more than one claim filed for the return of property under this section, at the expiration of the period for filing claims the seizing agency shall file a copy of all such claims with the clerk of court and the clerk shall proceed as if such claims were filed by the parties under section 809.3. ~~In the event that no owner can be located or no claim is filed under this section for property having a value of less than five hundred dollars, the property shall be deemed abandoned and the seizing agency shall become the owner of such property and may dispose of it in any reasonable manner.~~

~~e. f.~~ For unclaimed property having a ~~In the event that the owner is unable to be located or the property is deemed abandoned the following shall apply:~~

AN ACT relating to identity theft by providing for the notification of a breach in the security of personal information, requesting the establishment of an interim study committee relating to disclosure of personal information by public officials, entities, and affiliated organizations, and providing penalties.

Be It Enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Iowa:

Section 1. NEW SECTION. 715C.1 DEFINITIONS.

As used in this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires:

1. “Breach of security” means unauthorized acquisition of personal information maintained in computerized form by a person that compromises the security, confidentiality, or integrity of the personal information. Good faith acquisition of personal information by a person or that person’s employee or agent for a legitimate purpose of that person is not a breach of security, provided that the personal information is not used in violation of applicable law or in a manner that harms or poses an actual threat to the security, confidentiality, or integrity of the personal information.
 2. “Consumer” means an individual who is a resident of this state.
 3. “Consumer reporting agency” means the same as defined by the federal Fair Credit Reporting Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1681a.
 4. “Debt” means the same as provided in section 537.7102.
 5. “Encryption” means the use of an algorithmic process to transform data into a form in which the data is rendered unreadable or unusable without the use of a confidential process or key.
 6. “Extension of credit” means the right to defer payment of debt or to incur debt and defer its payment offered or granted primarily for personal, family, or household purposes.
 7. “Financial institution” means the same as defined in section 536C.2, subsection 6.
 8. “Identity theft” means the same as provided in section 715A.8.
 9. “Payment card” means the same as defined in section 715A.10, subsection 3, paragraph “b”.
 10. “Person” means an individual; corporation; business trust; estate; trust; partnership; limited liability company; association; joint venture; government; governmental subdivision, agency, or instrumentality; public corporation; or any other legal or commercial entity.
 11. “Personal information” means an individual’s first name or first initial and last name in combination with any one or more of the following data elements that relate to the individual if any of the data elements are not encrypted, redacted, or otherwise altered by any method or technology in such a manner that the name or data elements are unreadable:
 - a. Social security number.
 - b. Driver’s license number or other unique identification number created or collected by a government body.
 - c. Financial account number, credit card number, or debit card number in combination with any required security code, access code, or password that would permit access to an individual’s financial account.
 - d. Unique electronic identifier or routing code, in combination with any required security code, access code, or password that would permit access to an individual’s financial account.
 - e. Unique biometric data, such as a fingerprint, retina or iris image, or other unique physical representation or digital representation of biometric data.
- “Personal information” does not include information that is lawfully obtained from publicly available sources, or from federal, state, or local government records lawfully made available to the general public.
